

Ruben Pescara Founding Partner

Ruben Pescara is a real estate specialist, and he assists professional investors - both Italian and international - with their acquisitions and dismissals (both as asset- and share-deals), structuring their projects, also in the context of joint-ventures (including the setting-up or the acquisition of their corporate vehicles), and managing their assets and portfolios (drafting and negotiating asset-, property- and facility-management agreements, construction agreements, lease agreements, agency agreements).

Since 2015, Ruben Pescara has been a founding partner of Nunziante Magrone and have headed its Real Estate team, that operates in the different sectors of the property market, including offices, residential properties, hotels, high-street stores, shopping malls and retail parks, and it advises clients with their transactions and in their everyday management activities.

Appointments:

Governor of the International Association of Jewish Lawyers and Jurists
Member of several supervisory boards appointed pursuant to Italian decree no. 231 of 2001

Bar Association:

Bar of Milan

Education:

2000 Post-graduate degree in Advanced Studies of European and Transnational Law, University of Trento
1997 Degree in International Law (JD), Catholic University, Milan

Languages: Italian, English, French and Hebrew

LinkedIn: Ruben Pescara

Practices:

Business contracts
Real Estate and retail

Contacts:

Nunziante Magrone
70, Foro Buonaparte
20121 Milan
Italy

Ph: +39 02 6575181
Fax: +39 02 6570013

r.pescara@nmlex.it